ABOUT

- Ms. Shelly (legal name: Russell Marshall Parkins) is a Jamaican-born intuitive, entrepreneur, and self-described "Beyoncé of intuitives" with a huge personality and an even bigger spiritual presence. Raised in Queens after immigrating from Jamaica as a toddler, Shelly blends Caribbean spirituality, New York grit, luxury fashion, and deep ancestral work into a style that feels completely her own.
- By day, Shelly runs multiple businesses, including a luxury travel concierge company and her spiritual beauty brand, Jupiter's Moon. She also leads Jupiter Society, an online spiritual community where she teaches women about ritual work, astrology, manifestation, and intuitive development.
- Shelly says spirituality runs through the women in her family. Her great-grandmother was known as a town prophet and healer in Jamaica, with people traveling to her for cleansing, guidance, and spiritual support. While many women in her family stayed inside strict Christian traditions, Shelly became the first to fully embrace the spiritual gifts passed down through her lineage.
- Despite her deeply spiritual work, Shelly loves that she doesn't fit the stereotypical image of a mystic. Stylish, glamorous, and fashion-obsessed since attending New York's Fashion Industries High School, she jokes that you can absolutely be intuitive while still dressing cute and living boldly.
- Recently married, Shelly describes her husband as her total opposite. While she lives in the world of intuition and ritual, he works in IT and tech at Columbia University. Shelly lovingly compares their relationship to Bewitched — one part mystical chaos, one part structure and logic.
